ABOUT THE FSR - INTRODUCTION

The Financial Study association Rotterdam (FSR) is the study association for students interested in (Quantitative) Finance, Consulting, Accounting and Controlling at the Erasmus University Rotterdam, both at the Erasmus School of Economics and the Rotterdam School of Management.

Each year we organise various prestigious events like the International Banking Cycle, International Research Project, Corporate Finance Competition and the Private Equity Conference for our 3500 members. Other activities include workshops, company visits, study trips and company drinks. To make these events possible, the FSR has partnerships with over 100 companies in several sectors.

For more information about the FSR, do not hesitate to contact us! You can send an e-mail to info@fsr.nl or call 010 408 1830 or you can come by our office at G3A-06. Also make sure you follow us on Instagram and LinkedIn.

ICONSULTANCY COMMITTEE

As a member of the IConsultancy Committee (in collaboration with FAECTOR) you are responsible for organising the Women Consultancy Days and Consultancy Landscape.

The goal of the first event is to connect a group of 24 highly motivated female students with prestigious strategy consultants. During the Women Consultancy Days students can meet the world of strategy consulting by attending a two-day event in Amsterdam. Participating partners are Bain&Company, BCG, Roland Berger, Strategy&, McKinsey and OC&C.

On top of that, you are responsible for organising the Consultancy Landscape. A two-day event where you will get the opportunity to get to know several consultancy firms. As a committee member you are responsible, among other things, for the following tasks:

- Contacting the location
- Coming up with a theme
- Contacting relevant speakers
- Setting up a promotion plan

The IConsultancy committee member of FSR is also responsible for organising the Consultancy Tour, a two-day event with big strategy consulting firms, consisting of several inhouse days. This event is not in cooperation with FAECTOR.

INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH PROJECT COMMITTEE

The International Research Project (IRP) committee organises the largest event of FSR. As a committee member of the IRP you are responsible for selecting the participants and choosing the field research destination. The committee is divided into 3 functions, the international, commercial and HR officer. Respectively responsible for the flights and accommodations, keeping an overview of the project acquisition and the team-building events. On top of that, you will participate in the project, which consists of two months of desk research and two weeks of field research.

Throughout the year, the group will follow trainings to prepare themselves for the project. During the project, you will put your theoretical knowledge into practice. The IRP offers you the opportunity to work at a high level in a fast-moving economy, and it provides a valuable learning experience during your studies. The IRP starts in December with different training sessions in the Netherlands. These will not only help you during the project, but will also contribute to your professional and personal development.

Events

In July, the team of 20 students travels to an international destination to provide professional consultancy services to international companies. In previous years, the project took place in Colombia, Brazil, China, India, and South-East Asia. The IRP offers you the opportunity to work at a high level in a fast-moving economy and it provides a valuable learning experience during your studies.

As a committee member you are responsible, among other things, for the following tasks:

- Choosing the location
- Choosing the participants
- A function specific task (international, commercial, HR)
- Being project manager
- All tasks related to being a participant of the International Research Project

MASTERCLASS COMMITTEE

Next to recruitment events, the FSR also aims to contribute to a broader education for our members. Together with its partners, the FSR offers (short) courses on specific topics. This could include trainings that focuses on soft skills, such as interview training, CV writing training, or presentation training. Additionally, the trainings can also be more specialised focusing on hard skill development such as trading. At the beginning of the year, you have the freedom to define the masterclass topics together with the committee.

As a committee member, you are responsible for the following tasks:

- Define masterclass topics
- Reaching out to companies and training institutions
- Planning and executing the promotion plan
- Communicating with applicants

Furthermore, you will be in charge of organising four different masterclasses during the Career Skills course, a course specifically focusing on third-year ESE students. Our module FSR - Professional Skills in Finance is designed for students with an interest in finance. Our Career Skill centres around four key pillars within the finance industry: (i) M&A, (ii) Accountancy, (iii) Consultancy, and (iv) Asset Management. The aim of these masterclasses is to educate students on the hard and soft skills needed in a career in Finance.

CORPORATE FINANCE COMPETITION/ THE VALUATION COMMITTEE

The Corporate Finance Competition is a prestigious two-day event held at a luxurious estate, featuring the participation of four major banks. This exclusive event offers students a unique opportunity to delve into the realm of corporate finance through the resolution of diverse cases, guided by the hosting companies. Participants will gain valuable insights into corporate finance matters, broaden their understanding of the field, enhance their presentation skills, and expand their professional network.

Following the successful Corporate Finance Competition, we will organise the Valuation, a highly anticipated two-day event that focuses on teaching the fundamentals of popular valuation techniques employed by Investment Banking professionals. This invaluable training will be conducted by Training the Street, renowned for delivering exceptional valuation training to esteemed institutions such as Harvard and Insead. The second day of the event will feature inhouse workshops offered by financial institutions.

As a committee member, you will have various responsibilities, including:

- Developing a comprehensive promotion plan
- Assisting during the workshops, presentations, and networking receptions
- Managing marketing activities and overseeing the logistical aspects of the event

CAREER COMMITTEE

The Career Committee consists of two parts; the Financial Career Platform and Perspective.

Career

You will be responsible for the promotion and data analysis of the Financial Career Platform. This platform is the vacancy platform for students! You have the possibility to create a national promotion strategy and explore new possibilities to expand the Financial Career Platform.

Perspective

Perspective is the online magazine of FSR. As one of the committee members, you are responsible for the publication of several articles throughout the year. The committee will continue to cover interesting topics related to the broad field of finance and consulting. You will interview people for an interesting perspective on a certain topic and publish this in an article or podcast. You have the freedom to explore your own ideas and topics and write about what you find interesting in the financial sector. Joining this committee gives you the opportunity to meet Managing Directors and other interesting people working at prestigious companies.

Overall, it is a very flexible and adaptable committee as we do not have event deadlines.

Time period

- September 2023 – July 2024 (average of 3 hours per week)

INVESTMENT WEEK COMMITTEE

The Investment Week & Symposium is a large four-day event organised by FSR and B&R Beurs. Therefore, this committee will be composed of members from both B&R Beurs and FSR. As a member of the Investment Week committee, you will work closely with both associations. During the Investment Week & Symposium, students get a unique insight into the world of finance, including Sales & Trading, Private Equity, Asset Management, Mergers & Acquisitions, and Hedge Funds. The event will take place in May.

Throughout the week, various workshops are organised to give students the opportunity to familiarize themselves with the practices of different companies. The highlight of the week is the Investment Symposium, which has significantly grown in size. For the upcoming year, the aim is to scale up even further. The goal is to once again bring together leaders in the field of Asset Management.

The committee will take care of event planning, marketing strategy and execution, corporate communication, and day-to-day management of the Investment Week & Symposium. This is a unique opportunity to prove your skills and gain more insights into the world of investments!

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

As a committee member of FSR, you will organise one of our prestigious events, and work closely together with one or two board members and your fellow committee members. You get the change to broaden your network and receive trainings exclusively for committee members, such as an interview skills training. Lastly, we will organise several inhouse days with our main partners for our active members.

Throughout the year, we will organise several active member days, drinks, and dinners.

On top of that, the active members weekend is organised every year, with a destination that remains secret until you get on the airplane. Previous destinations were Warschau, Budapest and Sofia.

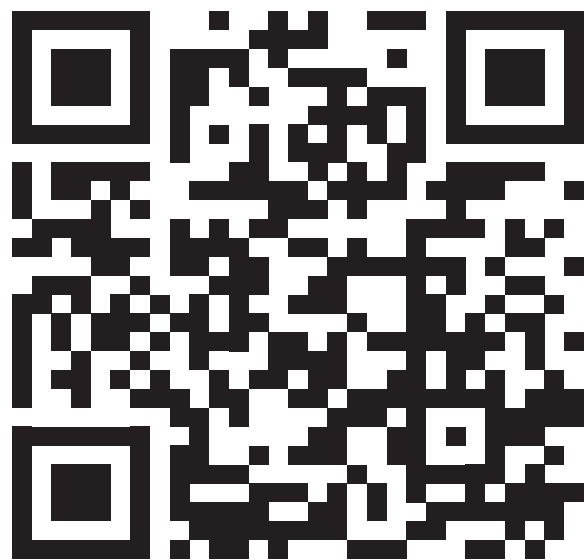

By becoming an active member at FSR, you get to meet and work with a lot of new people and experience the world of Finance. An ideal way to kickstart your career in a professional but social way!

Please, come by our office at G3A-06 if you would like to know more about becoming an active member at the FSR. We are happy to have a cup of coffee and answer any of your questions!
