ABOUT FSR

BRIDGING THE GAP BETWEEN THEORY AND PRACTICE

The Financial Study association Rotterdam (FSR) is the study association for students interested in (Quantitative) Finance, Consulting and Accounting at the Erasmus University Rotterdam, both at the Erasmus School of Economics and the Rotterdam School of Management.

Each year we organise various prestigious events like the International Banking Cycle, International Research Project, Corporate Finance Competition and the Private Equity Conference for our 3500 members. Other activities include workshops, company visits, study trips and company drinks. To make these events possible, the FSR has partnerships with over 130 companies in several sectors.

For more information about the FSR, do not hesitate to contact us! You can send an e-mail to info@fsr.nl, call 010 408 1830 or you can come by our office at G3A-06. Also make sure you follow us on Instagram and LinkedIn.

INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH PROJECT COMMITTEE

The International Research Project (IRP) committee organises the largest project of FSR. As a committee member of the IRP you are responsible for selecting the participants and choosing the field research destination. The committee is divided into 3 functions, the International, Commercial and HR officer. Respectively responsible for the flights and accommodations, keeping an overview of the project acquisition and the team-building events. On top of that, you will participate in the project, which consists of two months of desk research and two weeks of field research.

Throughout the year, the group will follow trainings to prepare themselves for the project. During the project, you will put your theoretical knowledge into practice. The IRP offers you the opportunity to work at a high level in a fast-moving economy, and it provides a valuable learning experience during your studies. The IRP starts in November with different training sessions in the Netherlands.

In July, the team of 20 students travels to an international destination to provide professional consultancy services to international companies. In previous years, the project took place in Brazil and South-East Asia.

MASTERCLASS COMMITTEE

Next to recruitment events the FSR also aims to contribute to a broader education for our members. Together with partners, FSR offers (short) courses on a specific topic. This could be a training focussing on soft skills such as interview training, CV writing training, or presentation training. Moreover, the training could be sector-specific, such as the Venture Capital Masterclass that we hosted last year in collaboration with Graduate Entrepreneur! Past pieces of training included Bloomberg Masterclass, Investment Banking Simulator, Venture Capital Masterclass and CFA training.

As a committee member you are responsible, among other things, for the following tasks:

- Responsible for finding and organising interesting masterclasses
- Contacting partner
- Arrange the promotion

Furthermore, you will be in charge of organising four different masterclasses during the Career Skills course, a course specifically focusing on third-year ESE students. Our module FSR - Professional Skills in Finance is designed for students with an interest in finance. Our Career Skill centres around five key pillars within the finance industry: (i) M&A, (ii) Accountancy, (iii) Consultancy, (iv) Asset Management and (v) Debt Advisory. The aim of these masterclasses is to educate students on the hard and soft skills needed in a career in Finance.

- September 2024 - June 2025 (with an average of 2 hours per week)

Application deadline

- 15th of September 2024

Committee composition

- 2 committee members, 1 board member

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

FSR organises three Conferences throughout the academic year. These are open events for all students, where speakers from renowned companies come to give a talk about their industry and field of expertise. Every Conference is focused on a branch of the financial industry and has a specific theme. As a committee member, your ideas contribute to selecting the theme for each Conference. Past Conferences include the Private Equity Conference, the Venture Capital Conference and Alternative Investments Conference.

As a committee member you are responsible, among other things, for the following tasks:

- Selecting the theme for each Conference;
- Setting up the promotion plan for the event;
- Inviting relevant speakers and the hosts;
- Organising the Conferences

Additionally, it is possible to host an inhouse workshop during this event. This way, companies can challenge the students with a case and end with a lunch or drinks for some informal face to face time.

Events

- Two or more conferences

Time period

- September 2024 - May 2025 (with an average of 3 hours per week)

Application deadline

- 15th of September 2024

Committee composition

- 2 committee members, 1 board member

CORPORATE FINANCE COMPETITION/VALUATION COMMITTEE

The Corporate Finance Competition is a prestigious two-day event held at a luxurious estate, featuring the participation of four major banks. This exclusive event offers students a unique opportunity to delve into the realm of corporate finance through the resolution of diverse cases, guided by the hosting companies. Participants will gain valuable insights into corporate finance matters, broaden their understanding of the field, enhance their presentation skills, and expand their professional network.

Following the successful Corporate Finance Competition, we will organise the Valuation, a highly anticipated two-day event that focuses on teaching the fundamentals of popular valuation techniques employed by Investment Banking professionals. This invaluable training will be conducted by Training the Street, renowned for delivering exceptional valuation training to esteemed institutions such as Harvard and Insead. The second day of the event will feature inhouse workshops offered by financial institutions.

As a committee member, you will have various responsibilities, including:

- Developing a comprehensive promotion plan
- Assisting during the workshops, presentations, and networking receptions
- Managing marketing activities and overseeing the logistical aspects of the event

INVESTMENT WEEK & SYMPOSIUM COMMITTEE

The Investment Week & Symposium is a two-week event organised by FSR and B&R Beurs. Therefore, this committee will be composed of members from both B&R Beurs and FSR. As a member of the Investment Week committee, you work closely with both associations. During the Investment Week & Symposium, students get an unique insight into the world of finance, including Sales & Trading, Private Equity, Asset Management, Mergers & Acquisitions, and Hedge Funds. The event will take place in May.

Throughout the week, various workshops are organised to give students the opportunity to familiarise themselves with the practices of different companies. The highlight of the week is the Investment Symposium, which takes place in the theatre of Rotterdam. Every year, roughly 600 students join. For the upcoming year, the aim is to scale up even further.

The committee will take care of event planning, marketing strategy, execution and day-to-day management of the Investment Week & Symposium. This is a unique opportunity to improve your skills and gain more insights into the world of investments!

M&A/PE DAYS COMMITTEE

The M&A Days and Private Equity (PE) Days comprise a series of inhouse events hosted by various finance boutiques and PE funds in the Netherlands. These events present a remarkable opportunity for students interested in finance to explore the nuances within different finance boutiques and PE firms. Through engaging inhouse activities, students can work on real- life cases, often complemented by informal drink receptions or lunches, facilitating casual interactions with company employees. The PE Days finish with a company dinner with several PE firms.

As a committee member, your dedication to ensuring the success of this year's edition is vital. Your input and creativity can truly make a difference in shaping the events. The PE Days are scheduled for February and March, followed by the M&A Days in April.

Your responsibilities as a committee member include:

LONDON FINANCE TOUR COMMITTEE

Each year, a select group of 20 top students gets the chance to explore one of the world's most prominent financial hubs: London. The London Finance Tour (LFT) comprises a series of inhouse visits to notable companies in London, enabling students to immerse themselves in a different corporate culture. This tour is scheduled to take place in May or June. During the LFT, participants will have the privilege of visiting a diverse range of companies, including banks, financial institutions, and corporate service providers. The tour combines formal activities with informal parts. The inhouse visits often involve working on real- life cases, alongside networking drinks which allow participants to engage with company employees in an informal setting.

As a committee member, your responsibilities will include:

- Developing a comprehensive promotion plan
- Managing marketing activities and coordinating event logistics
- Providing support during the events

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

As a committee member of FSR, you will organise one of our prestigious events, and work closely together with one or two board members and your fellow committee members. You get the chance to broaden your network and receive trainings exclusively for committee members, such as an interview skills training. Lastly, we will organise several inhouse days with our main partners for our active members.

Throughout the year, we will organise several active member days, drinks, and dinners. On top of that, the active members weekend is organised every year, with a destination that remains secret until you get on the airplane. Previous destinations were Warschau, Budapest and Sofia.

By becoming an active member at FSR, you get to meet and work with a lot of new people and experience the world of Finance. An ideal way to kickstart your career in a professional but social way! Please, come by our office at G3A-06 if you would like to know more about becoming an active member at the FSR. We are happy to have a cup of coffee and answer any of your questions!
